

I am strongly opposed to the weakening of current telephone privacy laws. Do not give in to CBA pressure. It is time for citizens rights and preferences to come before big business. Please safeguard the sanctuary of our homes. Whoever is reading this...you have a hooome and a telephone and a life away from work.....you know what I mean. Thank you.